The quantity of the fragrance ingredient presented in the table above corresponds with that in 100% of the product. This labelling is based on the calculated amounts as per the formulation. Amounts presented only include amounts to a level of 0.001 %.

The transitional periods for the declaration of the newly added allergens according to the amendment published in the EU's Official Journal are:

- three years for placing on the market (i.e. new products), until 31st of July 2026 and
- five years for withdrawing from the market (i.e. existing products), until 31st of July 2028.

With regard to potentially contained allergen precursors we do not provide any guarantee as their reaction to contact allergens depends on the specific properties of the corresponding final product.

This document has been created electronically and is valid without signature. All disclosures shall be valid until publication of the change/amendment. The information provided in this document is to the best of our current knowledge and has been compiled with the utmost reasonable care. However, this should not be construed to be a warranty claim. Improper transport and/or improper storage may result in quality changes beyond our control. Please be advised that the information contained herein does not exempt you from your obligation to exercise due diligence with respect to quality assurance, suitability testing and compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Although we assume that the products delivered by our company comply with the legal requirements in the respective destination countries, we cannot guarantee their legality and therefore recommend that our customers confer with local authorities prior to use. Regulations to which reference is made refer to the latest current version.
